Charles Farquhar, Saturday, sold to T. N. Robbins ten head of mule colts at p. t.

Henry Hagelstein is the leading saddle and harness man of West Texas and when you need any thing in the saddle and harness line it will pay you to call on him as he makes the best saddle in the world and carries the largest stock.

Albert Owens and John Heflin will leave for Brackettville the latter part of this week with about 60 head of fat cattle which they will sell to government contractors at Fort Clark. C. L. Blandon sold his ranch this week to J. B. Hamby, of Austin, for $2,500; also 225 head of cattle at $15 around; Mr. Hamby will build a house on the well section, which lies in Sutton county. R. S. Holland made the deal.—Sonora Sun.

Hugh Clark, the well known Monroe City, Mo., stockman, arrived yesterday a week ago with a shipment of 63 head of fine young bulls. Of these he has sold to T. G. Hendrick, 15 Herefords; to E. A. Kelley of Odessa, 6 Red Polled; to R. A. Whitaker, 18 Polled Angus; E. H. Estes, 2 Durhams; Jim Self, 1 Hereford; Bill Gann, of Odessa, 5 Red Polled; Charlie White, 2 Durhams, and to Will Hanson, 1 black Muley. He had but 13 left Thursday. These are all fine animals, and sold at private terms.—Midland Reporter.

To ascertain the weight of live cattle, multiply the length of the distance around the animal back of the fore shoulder by itself, and then multiply the result by 17 1/2 and you have very near the weight of the animal. Don Cooper sold his meat market to A. N. Galley for $500. Don Cooper sold 75 feeder bulls for W. C. Page to W. J. Carson at $23 delivery at San Angelo. Art Hambrick sold 25 head of stock cattle to W. A. Miers this week at $12.50 per head. Don Cooper sold 1200 head of steers 3's and up to Wm. Beavans of Menardville, at t. p. delivery at McKavett.—Sonora News.

Claud B. Hudspeth.

Just as the PRESS was ready to go to press we received a letter from our gallant and patriotic young friend Claud B. Hudspeth informing us that at the solicitation of many friends he had decided to become a candidate for representative from this the 102nd district, and instructing us to put in his announcement. We have known Claud Hudspeth for ten years—since he was a printers devil at Brady—and we have watched his gradual ascent since that day to this with no small degree of satisfaction.

His position on questions of public interest are well known, as he never hesitates through his paper, the Ozona Kicker, to give the "reason for the faith that is in him" on any public question. He is strictly opposed to the present quarantine regulations, and the people will know exactly where to find him if elected.

He is young, vigorous, honest and in every sense worthy of the high honor to which his friends would elect him.

Death of Mrs. A. E. Tankersley.

Mrs. Annie E. Tankersley departed this life at her home in San Angelo Wednesday morning February 12th 1902. Funeral services were held in the Christian church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, by Rev. F. M. Wyatt, assisted by Rev. Francis R. Starr and Rev. E. B. Witherspoon.

At the conclusion of the service, which was peculiarly touching and appropriate, the pallbearers, Messrs M. B. Pulliam, Ed Duggan, S. W. Merchant, A. S. Gantt, Wm. S. Kelley and Samuel Pollock, with reverent and loving hands bore the casket containing all that was earthly of Mrs. Tankersley to the hearse, and the sad march to Fairmount cemetery began, and there, surrounded by a host of old time friends, and by numbers whose lives had been brightened by the kindly Christian ministrations of this truly good woman, she was laid to rest in God's acre.

Mrs. Tankersley was born in Mississippi but had lived for nearly fifty years of her eventful life in Texas. She was married in 1848 and came to West Texas with her husband and children about 34 years ago. The country was then on the frontier and she met the conditions of life in this wild, new land with that pluck, patience, fortitude and courage that has ever distinguished the noble American women, to whose efforts this great Republic owes a debt of Mrs. Tankersley was the mother of nine children, seven of whom survive to mourn the loss and revere the memory of a devoted Christian mother. They are Fayette and G. M. Tankersley, of Irion county, H. M. Tankersley, of Sanderson, Mrs. Mary Lewis, Mrs. Sallie Phelan, Mrs. Clara Frary, of San Angelo, and Mrs. Elizabeth Emerick, of Sherwood.

County Pays Judgment.

Last week the county commissioners of Tom Green county ordered the judgment in the case of Dr. Boyd Cornick vs Tom Green county, amounting to $138.40 paid. They also ordered the claim of Jos. Tweedy for $11.90 paid. These claims were for services rendered and supplies furnished, under the orders of the health officer of Tom Green county, in taking care of a case of smallpox which was quarantined at Knickerbocker.

Tom Green county resisted payment on the theory that the bills should be paid by Irion county, as the county judge of Irion county, hearing the patient was headed for Irion county, and telephoned the health officer of Tom Green to have him stopped, and had promised that Irion would pay the expenses.

One day a keeper accidentally broke a bottle of Scott's Emulsion near the monkey cage and the monkeys eagerly lapped it up from the floor.

This suggested the idea that it might do them good. Since then the monkeys have received regular doses and the keepers report very few deaths from consumption. Of course it's cheaper to buy Scott's Emulsion than new monkeys—and that suits the circus men.

weakens the body and degrades the mind. It saps the nervous strength that is the source of all health, and perverts the functions of every organ. Because of its stubborn nature, it is often called incurable. This is not true. There is one medicine that never fails to check the nervous spasms and give new strength to the entire system.

"Female trouble brought on spasms and epileptic fits, and I have had as many as fourteen in one day. I had not slept for a week and was out of my mind when I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, but now I am cured."
